WESTMORELAND COUNTY UNITED WAY AND SHOP 'N SAVE® ANNOUNCE WINNER OF TIMED SHOPPING SPREE

--Contestant Says She'll Donate Groceries to Favorite Charity in Spirit of the Holiday--

Pittsburgh, Pa.- November 18, 2009- Out of almost 1,400 entries, Sheryl Brown of Irwin and an employee of the Elliot Company was chosen randomly as the winner of a three-minute United Way SHOP 'N SAVE shopping spree, donated by Greensburg SHOP 'N SAVE stores. In a surprise twist, Brown announced that she plans to donate the food to the Welcome Home Shelter of Westmoreland County, a Greensburg homeless shelter for women, children and families.

For the second year, Ray Charley, owner of two Greensburg SHOP 'N SAVE stores, partnered with United Way of Westmoreland County to provide the grand prize for people contributing to the United Way's fundraising efforts. SHOP 'N SAVE will host Brown's three-minute shopping spree that at the Route 66 SHOP 'N SAVE on Nov. 19 at 8 a.m.

"We are impressed with the amount of people who supported the efforts of United Way of Westmoreland County," said Charley. "SHOP 'N SAVE is inspired by the generosity of Sheryl and United Way and will award her with a $250 gift certificate for her donation."
